The main thing
in life is not to be afraid to be human.
—Pablo Casals

Only you and I can help the sun to rise
each coming morning.
If we don't it may drench
itself out in sorrow.

—Joan Baez

People who shut their eyes to reality simply invite their own destruction.

—James Baldwin

I somehow cling to the fancy that in all men hiddenly reside certain wondrous properties— which by some happy but rare accident may chance to be called forth
—Melville

The only death is the death we die everyday by not living
—Zorba

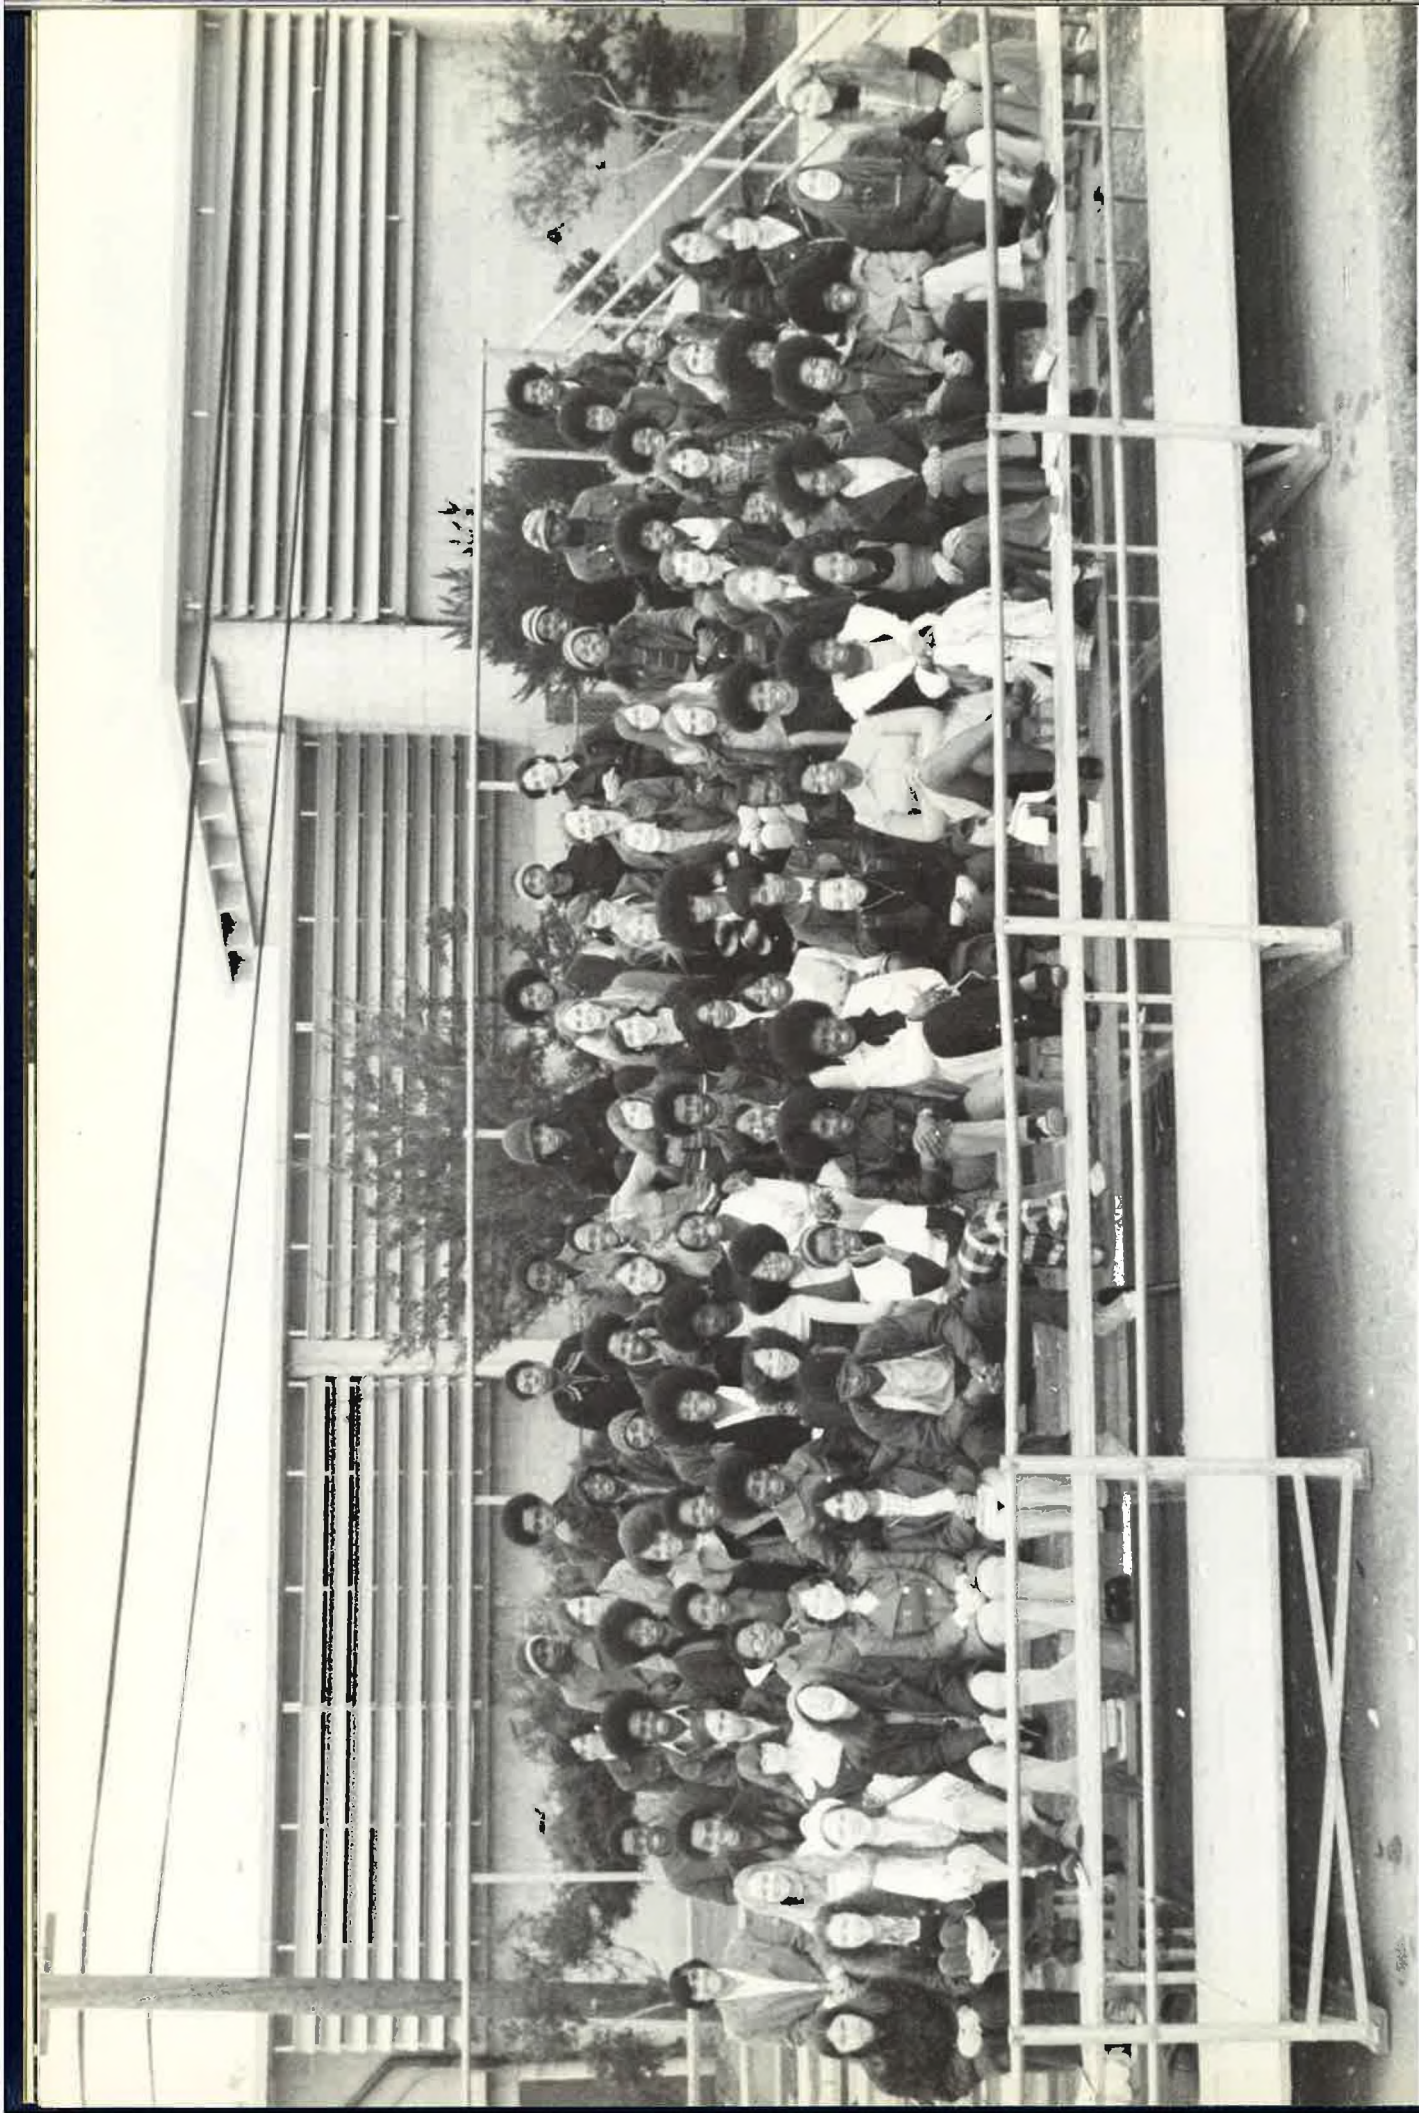

With this faith we will be able to transform the jangling discords of our nation into a beautiful symphony of brotherhood

—Martin Luther King, Jr.

Ravenswood: A Good Place to Be

My friend,
you and I shall remain
strangers unto life,
And unto one another
and each unto himself,
Until the day
when you shall speak
and I shall listen Hearing your voice
as my own,
And when I Shall stand before you Thinking myself
standing before a mirror.

— Kahlil Gibran

The dream is vague
Without a name

Yet warm and wavering
and sharp as flame.
