"As a long-term resident of East Palo Alto, I have dedicated myself to bettering the quality of life for the citizens of East Palo Alto."

Where I stand on these issues:

Affordable Housing

I will work to protect low, and below-low income individuals and families that want to live in East Palo Alto.

Public Safety

I support increased police staffing and modern equipment to effect better police services to the community. I believe that the fire department should play a larger role in the level of service that protects our community.

Ravenswood School District

I will support a stronger partnering with the Ravenswood School District and the City Council to bring whole life services to all our citizens.

WILLIAM "CHRIS" WOODARD

Dear Citizens of East Palo Alto,

In 1992, my wife Helen and I, and our two children Veronica and Michael, moved to East Palo Alto. As a fellow citizen and local homeowner, I have dedicated my time to help improve our community. I have spent my time attending school board meetings, city council meetings, and have also served on the Public Safety Commission. This city needs a council member with commitment, energy, dedication, insight, willingness and skill to bring residents together as we plan and move forward with a positive vision for our future.

I am running for City Council of East Palo Alto and ask for your vote and support.

Firefighters endorse William "Chris" Woodard for City Council.

William "Chris" Woodard served as a Public Safety Commissioner and believes that the fire department should play a larger role in the level of service that protects our community.
