THE DAY OF THE "SCRAMBLE"

(Based on a true life experience)

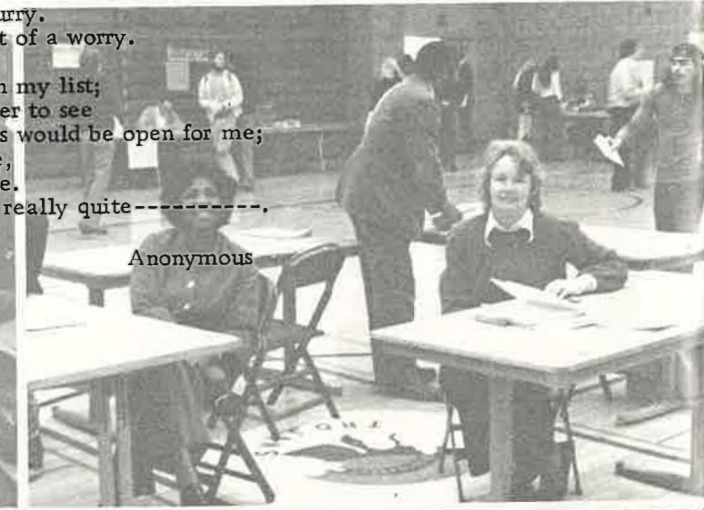

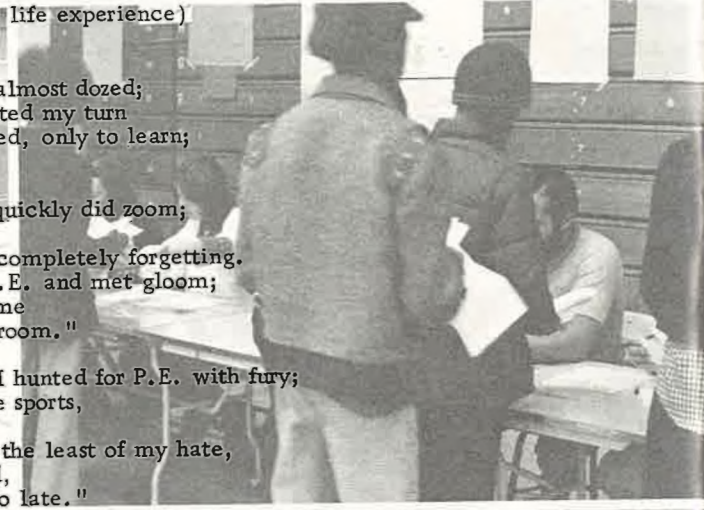

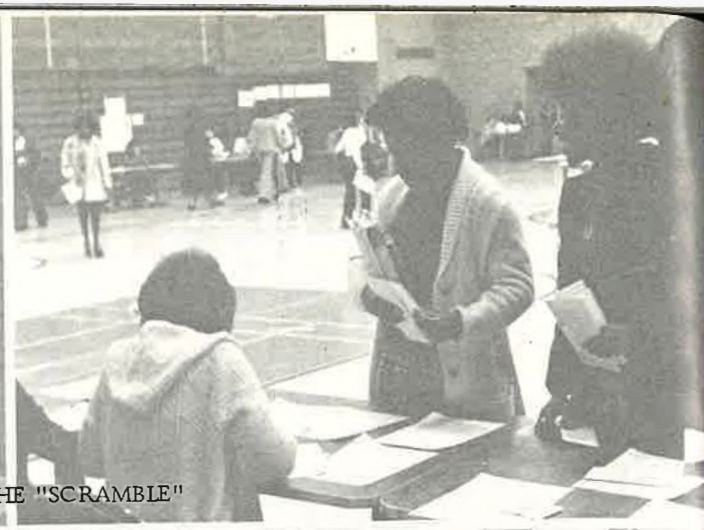

After Biology where I almost dozed;
I stood in line and waited my turn
Being pushed and shoved, only to learn;
"The class is closed."

To enlist in English I quickly did zoom;
Jetting and fretting;
My P.E. requirement completely forgetting.
I went to sign up for P.E. and met gloom;
"In the class at this time
There just is no more room."

Through the schedule I hunted for P.E. with fury;
I had a choice of three sports,
What a terrible fate!
So I asked about one, the least of my hate,
And promptly was told,
"It's closed, your'e too late."
With my eyes a bit blurry.
I left the room in a bit of a worry.

Biology was the last on my list;
So I quickly rushed over to see
If by chance, the class would be open for me;
It was closed of course,
At the time I have free.
By now I confess, I'm really quite-----,

Ravenswood High School
 Is a stricken victim of decrescent spirit
 In a great need of an evaluation.
 Let us not walk away
 And let it suffer in agony.
 We, the students,
 Are an important source of Ravenswood
 And it is our strategy to improve it.

Can't you see, what the world is coming to Can't you see, the world needs me and you Can't you see, we don't need dope
Can't you see, we still need hope Can't you see, what a beautiful world this could be
It only takes people like you and me.

Dear Stella,
 One of the reasons
 I'm so glad I went to Bago was cuz I really got to know you there. Our friendship means a lot to me.
 You're a really beautiful person, and you deserve it. The best gift you could give me is to be you.
 It's too bad you're graduating, I would really love to have known you better.

Thank You To

Estela dear:

hope you get all you want out of life now that you're graduating. I wouldn't exactly say were the best of friends, but...
 (just kidding) I know what you need!
 A nice young man to boss you around!
 No? Well....

Anyway, I hope we still keep in touch
 now that you're graduating. Don't do anything
 I wouldn't do.

Sincerely
 Ana Maria Zavala

Estela Please forget me for every thing
 that I don't do
 you. but I will wish you the best.
 Manuel Del Real

well. Estela: what should I write?
 I really miss you all the time in the world this summer, and all the years to come, and I mean it, but I'll take it all back if you don't call me
 or come visit me
 while I have money
