

Old Guard Out In East Palo Alto Election

TOM LANTOS
11th Congressional District

SHARIFA WILSON
East Palo Alto Councilwoman

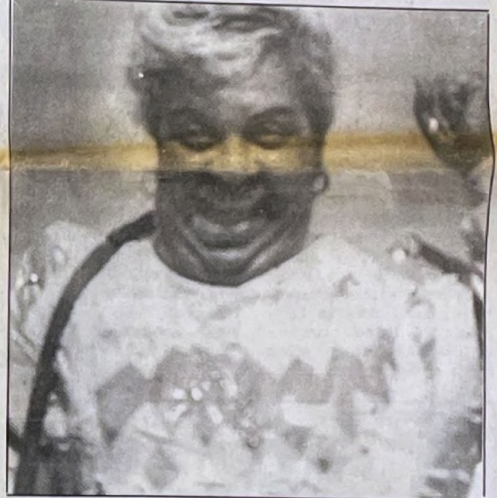

BOMANI SIWATU
Ravenswood City School Board

TOM CAMPBELL
12th Congressional District

NEVADA BUTLER
East Palo Alto Councilwoman

MYRTLE WALKER
Ravenswood City School Board

Both incumbents lost in a surprising turn of events in the East Palo Alto City Council election, according to the returns of yesterday's ballots.

Incumbent Vice Mayor John Bostic and City Councilwoman Barbara Mouton were both unseated. Mrs. Mouton had previously stated that she did not intend to run for re-election, and did not wage a vigorous campaign.

Winners of the two seats were Nevada Butler, with 1,259 votes and Sharifa Wilson, with 1,005 votes. Even without campaigning, Mrs. Mouton garnered 958 votes and was the third-highest votegetter, followed by Clara J. Starr with 893, and fifth was Vice Mayor John Bostic, who had waged a major campaign, with 721 votes.

Bruce W. Nash, a newcomer to the political arena, drew 560 votes, and stated that this was not the end, but the beginning. N. Armond Ross drew 381 votes and Tony Homes Horwath drew 91, while Bob Lamonica only drew 89 votes.

In the Ravenswood City School Board election, both the incumbents were soundly defeated, while incumbent Myrtle Walker was the second-highest votegetter and was returned to her seat. Newcomers Ruben Abrica was the highest votegetter, with 1845 votes, Commissioner Walker, with 1833 votes, and newcomer Bomani Siwatu, with 1538 votes, became the third member of the School Board.

In the congressional race, Congressman Tom Lantos of the 11th Congressional District, soundly defeated his opposition with 93,992 votes to return his to Congress, and Republican incumbent Tom Campbell of the 12th Congressional District received 17,578 votes, to be returned to Congress.

Statement of Congressman Tom Lantos, 11th Congressional District:

"I am deeply grateful to my friends and neighbors on the peninsula for placing their trust in me again as their representative from Washington. I will continue to do my utmost to serve the people of East Palo Alto and the rest of San Mateo County to the best of my abilities."
