Black Art Show Sunday

A one-man art show by Willie Webster, a young black artist from East Palo Alto, will be held Sunday at Oja Nairobi, an Afro-American shop at 2156 University Ave.

Webster, a school-community counselor at Willow School, is a junior art major at San Jose State College.

Mrs. Syrtiller Kabat, owner of Oja Nairobi, described Webster's style as full of the rich earth colors typified in the new Afro fabrics. His collection includes portraits of local people and abstracts, some so huge you become a part of them. Others very small.

The shop will be open between 1 and 6 p.m. for the art show only. Refreshments will be served.
