

EAST PALO ALTO LIBRARY
2415 UNIVERSITY AVENUE
EAST PALO ALTO, CA 94303

P.A.T. 11-9-68

E. Palo Altan crowned Foothill homecoming queen

Gwen Jackson, an 18-year-old East Palo Alto girl, was crowned Foothill Junior College homecoming queen during halftime ceremonies of the football team's game with College of San Mateo.

Miss Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther M. Jackson, 1104 Laurel Ave., is a freshman speech and psychology major at Foothill. She was sponsored by the Black Students Union on campus.

Campus voting on the 15 Homecoming Queen candidates was held Thursday and Friday, with voters dropping pennies in jars for their favorite.

Miss Jackson, a graduate of Sunnyvale High School, is a salesgirl at a Stanford Shopping Center fashion store. She plans to attend either Stanford University or the University of Santa Clara.

Her future ambitions include becoming a fashion model or psychology or English teacher.

"I appreciate all the help I received," Miss Jackson said, "not only from the black students but from the white and brown students also. That impressed me the most. Every one worked together making posters and putting on the fashion show we had."

GWEN JACKSON