Frank J. Omowale Satterwhite, Ph.D.

President, Leadership Incorporated

Frank J. Omowale Satterwhite is an organizational and community change consultant who completed an undergraduate degree at Howard University, a Master's Degree at Southern Illinois University and a doctoral degree at Stanford University.

Omowale is the President of Leadership Incorporated, a progressive, nonprofit consulting firm focused on building capacity for social change in communities of color. He was previously employed as President, National Community Development Institute; President, Community Development Institute; Acting Superintendent, Ravenswood City School District; Associate Dean and Chairman of African American Studies, Oberlin College, where he established the first Black Studies Program at Oberlin; President, Institute for the Study of Community Economic Development; and Associate Director, Western Regional Office, College Entrance Examination Board.

During the winter semester of the 2015-2016 academic year, Omowale served as a Visiting Professor, Scholar in Residence, at The New School, Milano School of International Affairs, Management and Urban Policy in New York City.

In a typical year, Omowale provides consulting services to social justice, health/human service, governmental, philanthropic and community development organizations; he facilitates community dialogues to promote consensus-building about key social issues; he conducts training programs for residents, organizational leaders and consultants working in communities of color; and he co-designs and implements place-based, community-change initiatives in partnership with various foundations. During the past 30 years, Omowale has contracted with more than 1,200 organizations in over 120 cities and 40+ states.

Omowale formerly served as Board Chair of the Alliance for Nonprofit Management. He also served on the boards of the Praxis Project (Washington, D.C.), Applied Research Center (Oakland, CA), Urban Habitat (Oakland, CA), EPA Teen Home (East Palo Alto, CA) and Girls Club of the Mid-Peninsula (East Palo Alto, CA). Omowale is a former councilmember in the City of East Palo Alto and a former planning commissioner with San Mateo County.

During his career, Omowale Satterwhite has received numerous public service awards from governmental, philanthropic, professional and civic organizations.
