RAVENSWOOD
HIGH SCHOOL

We dedicate the yearbook to Mr. Cole, a man of science, a friend to know. He came to Ravenswood in a determined way, to enlighten our knowledge for better days. He cared for his students; in their faces it is told—So we dedicate this Argonaut to dear Mr. Cole.

Board of Trustees

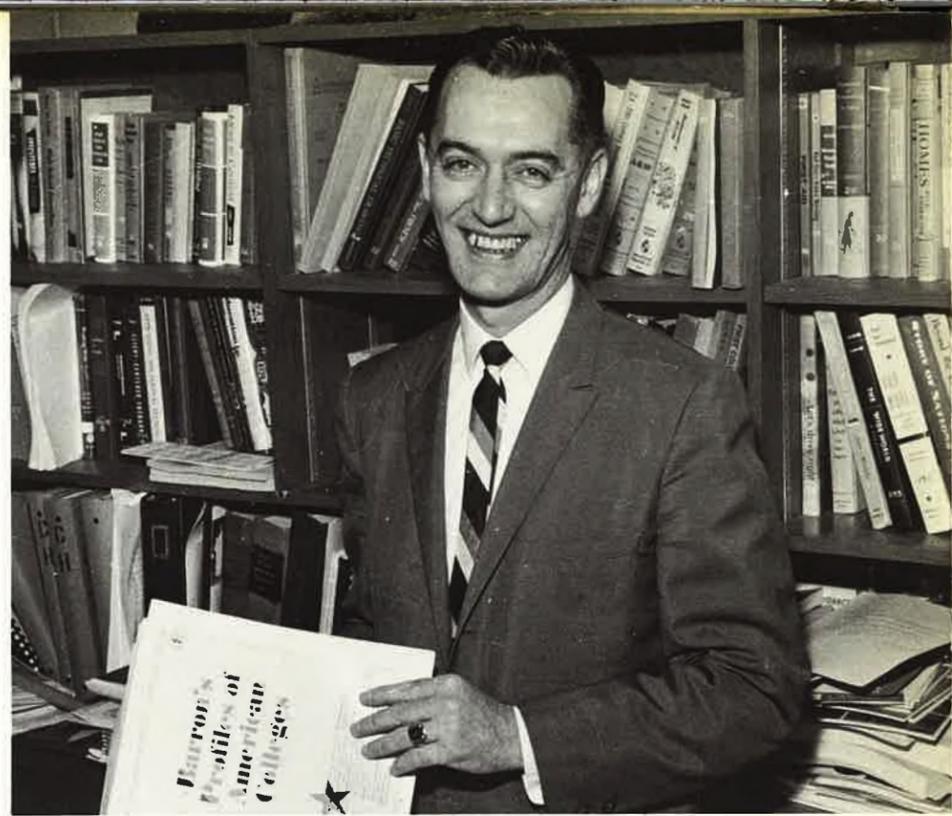

Left to right: Dr. Dean A. Watkins, Mrs. Helen Kerwin, Dr. George P. Chaffey, Mr. Ferris Miles, Dr. Ernest L. Nelson, Mr. John A. Cost (not shown)

Congratulations to the Class of '66 for one of the finest senior years in the history of Ravenswood High School. You have excelled in scholarship, athletics, and leadership and have left a mark which will test the mettle of classes for years to come. May you continue to do well and carry with you always the high ideals of service and democracy for which Ravenswood stands.

You're so beautiful!

Dan Kawasaki, Eugene Fowler, Nell Goodwill, Mike Meyerhof, Judy Pressley welcome prospective customers.

The chief money-making activity of the Senior Class is traditionally the annual Christmas Tree Lot, manned 24-hours a day for several weeks by dedicated seniors and their advisors. The 1965 Christmas Tree sale made the Senior Class a profit of $450.

Sharon Washington, Wilma Julian, Paula Berry, Eugene Fowler inspect a tree.

The Queen: Donetta Poston

Marvin Moore(73) brings down Carlmont's Gary Harms, with Trojan Doug Gardner (33) closing in for the finishing touch.

No escape for Wildcat ball carrier due to the Trojan's determined defense.

John Accinelli makes use of Sam Wallis timely block to pick up a long gain against the Scots. The Trojan's duplicated performances like this throughout the game, to prevail 25-13

Brust is being tackled by Sequoia defenders and forced out of bounds.

Mike Roque #72 ready to throw a block as Half-back Frank Romo #44 sweeps around end and sprints upfield for long yardage. Terry Brust #12 and James Marshall #23 look on.

James Marshall #23 gets away from two of San Carlos defensive men and tries to straight-arm the third.

The Ravenswood Varsity concluded the finest season ever with a 4-2-2 SPAL record, which included wins over Carlmont, Sequoia, Gunn and San Carlos and ties with Menlo Atherton and Cubberly.

The season was highlighted by many outstanding plays. Frank Romo set two run back records in two consecutive games--Jessie Thompson threw a 34 yard pass to Terry Brust in the final minute of play to cinch a win over Gunn--Steve Simon dropped Pignatoro behind the line of scrimmage to cripple a final Carlmont drive--Sam Booker put the pressure on the MA backfield.

This year there were no really serious injuries with the season being marked by a snapped Achilles tendon on the part of an enthusiastic coach, a dislocated shoulder on the part of a hard-hitting center, and a broken nose on the part of a determined quarterback.

So to Mr. Costello and Mr. Miller--Congratulations on a fine season; and to the whole team--you all did a great job!

Buchser Tournament

Three consecutive wins gave the Ravenswood Trojans their first Buchser Tournament Championship. The most sensational win was the 49-48 victory over the favored Blackford team. Perhaps the key to the mighty Trojan win lie in the fantastic job exhibited by Joe McNair, Lincoln Minor, and Charles Lowery. The heart-stopping play which gave RHS the championship was accomplished with only one second remaining on the time clock. The Trojans had the ball; Jesse Thompson faked a toss to Art Edge, then wheeled around and tossed it to Lowery in the corner, 35 feet from the basket. The ball barely touched his hand before it was zooming toward the basket. The referee signaled that the ball was in the air before the buzzer sounded. The screaming, tear-faced Trojan rooters clamored to the floor. It took fifteen minutes to clear the gym as the officials presented the trophies. Art Edge and Joe McNair were both named to the six man all-tournament team.

"OPEN SESAME"
for your future.

The magic words for your future could well be "Pacific Telephone." Just step through our doors and you're in the exciting world of communications where a wealth of opportunity awaits you.

We need ambitious men and women from many levels of education—high school graduates on up—and with many interests, in both technical and commercial fields. So talk to your counselor about your future and about the advantages of a career in communications. And when you're ready to seek your fortune, remember the magic words—"Pacific Telephone."

 Pacific Telephone
