

Dr. Omowale Satterwhite

Whereas, Dr. Omowale Satterwhite has been a model for what a human being should aspire to be as a conscientious and responsible member of our community and of society in general, and

Whereas, the legacy of Dr. Satterwhite will endure through the institutions and organizations he has nurtured, including the City of East Palo Alto, for generations to come,

Therefore, we declare it only fitting and appropriate, that we acknowledge for all the world to know however inadequate this acknowledgment may be, that Omowale Satterwhite stands in the great frame of the heroes and heroines of humanity, including the great religious and political leaders, both past and present, and we thereby here honor him and declare our lasting admiration, love and gratitude for this triumph of humankind.
